Fall Therapeutic Programs

Social Adventures...a program is designed to increase your child's ability to engage in developmentally appropriate social activities. The program provides children a place to play and to fit in, a nurturing social laboratory. Through play, exploration and practice, the program is intended to teach both the soft and hard skills needed to successfully and actively participate in neighborhood and school social activities such as ball games, birthday parties, sleepovers, etc.

This program offers the opportunity to make flint and steal fires, whittle spoons, do leather work, archery, and other "primitive," skills. In partnership with Aerie Experiences

Thursday Evenings; 5:30 p.m.—7:00 p.m. Ages 11-16

Ninja Therapy is a unique therapeutic approach that allows participants to experientially build. physical, emotional and mental strength, stamina and stability. The activities are based on the American Ninja Warrior TV show and lead by Jen Liam LCSW a show participant.

Therapeutic concepts such as positive self-talk, emotional and physical regulation, effective communication, goal setting and personal/group accountability are just a few of the many concepts that will guide all interactions.

Physical activities and obstacle courses will offer opportunities for children to work on balance, coordination, agility, timing, strength, and stamina.and will be adjusted/modified to suit each child.

Children will have fun and gain confidence as they learn tools and techniques to be more effective in their physical, emotional, social and cognitive worlds. In partnership with Mosaic Counseling, Inc.
